My wife and I spent a very pleasant couple of days in Dunblane, Friday 30th/Saturday 31st May, staying overnight at the Old Churches House.

What made our visit so pleasant was the great sense of a community spirit so evident as we walked through Dunblane. Everyone whom we met made eye contact, smiled and said 'Hello' and offered guidance when we asked directions. We went along to the coffee morning in the Abbey hall and this was well attended with youngsters and their relatives enjoying themselves and working well together raising funds for the trip to Tuscany. Congratulations to all those involved in creating the most attractive rock garden. We also remarked on the general absence of litter.

In my view, a place is judged by its people and we wish to thank the people of Dunblane for making our visit so rewarding.

Sincerely,

Malcolm and Marjorie Allan
