

PRESS RELEASE

12 Yard Productions are pleased to announce that the BBC2 quiz show 'Eggheads' is back for a 18th series.

We're looking for fantastic teams to challenge our resident quiz show Goliaths!

What's it all about?

Everyday a new team of challengers take on our general knowledge masters – The Eggheads – in 5 rounds of heavy hitting quizzing, hosted by Jeremy Vine, for a chance to win a cash prize.

How does it work?

In every show there are 4 individual question rounds, in which a player is asked up to 3 multiple choice questions on subjects such as Sport, Music, Food and Drink, Arts and Books, Politics, History, Geography, Science and Film & TV.

The winner of each round secures themselves an extra brain to play for their team in the final general knowledge round! The more category rounds a team wins the more players are left to confer in the final round.

In each show, the challengers have the chance to win a minimum of £1,000. If the Eggheads win, this money rolls over to the next show. Previous challengers have won tens of thousands of pounds.

Who can apply as a team?

We are looking for teams of 6 (5 players and a stand-by) with a good level of general knowledge and a real passion for quizzing who would like to give it a go.

You don't even need to be an existing quiz team, why not create a team of friends, family or workmates? The only rule is that you know one another.

All applicants must be aged 18 years or over and be legally resident and currently living in the UK, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man.

Who's taken part in the past?

It's not just pub quiz teams who apply. We've had a complete array of teams on previous series including:

Teams of Teachers
Previous winners of University Challenge
Policemen
Wheelchair Rugby Players
Family Teams
Charity Groups

Knitting Clubs
Members of a Deaf Club
Hand Models
Para Equestrian Drivers
Disabled Angling Group
| Book Groups

And that's just to name a few...

What happens next?

We will be speaking to teams who apply over the next few weeks, and starting auditions shortly after that. Selected teams will be invited to an audition where we will play the game and explain the casting process.
