The First Responder Service in Dunblane

A new team of First Responders is to be established in Dunblane under the auspices of the Scottish Ambulance Service and Trossachs Search & Rescue

If you are interested in hearing about the First Responder service and finding out what is involved in becoming a volunteer First Responder, then come along to a meeting to be held:-

Wednesday 24 April at 7.30pm
the Braeport Centre

Trossachs Search & Rescue was invited by Dunblane Community Council to expand their area of operation to include Dunblane

Dunblane First Responders provided a valuable service in Dunblane for nearly a decade. The group is no longer in a position to provide a First Responder service in the Town
